

LOCAL NEWS.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES YESTERDAY.—The weather, yesterday, was delightful, and large congregations were present at most of the churches. Rev. Mr. Hubbard preached in Christ Church in the morning, and Rev. Mr. Jackson in Grace Church in the morning and in Christ Church at night. Rev. W. P. Jacobs, of Clinton, South Carolina, preached in the Union Presbyterian Church at night, and Rev. Mr. Mills in the M. E. Church in the morning. With these exceptions the pulpits were filled by the pastors of the respective churches. In St. Mary's Church a large number of young people took their first communion at early Mass. There was a colored baptism in the morning at the usual place of Battery Rodgers. The following is a report of the work done during the day by the Young Men's Christian Association: "The Aims House services were conducted by the usual committee. The exercises were of the same hearty character attended by these meetings and were much added to by an address from one of the city clergy, the congregation expressing themselves as thirsting for more of the good things spoken by the dear brother. The Jail Mission Committee were highly encouraged in their work, having more help and good attention on the part of the inmates, given to their words of counsel. The matins, given at service of the season was held at 6 o'clock, on Naylor's Hill, and the committee were greatly encouraged in their effort. The usual vigorous exercises were held and a full congregation were present, who gave earnest heed to the word spoken. The four o'clock prayer meeting, in the Baptist Church, was not so numerously attended as usual but the exercises were of exceeding interest. The speakers were very earnest in their appeals to the young unconverted present, and their remarks were listened to by them with much seriousness." This meeting will be held next Sunday in the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

ANOTHER STOPPAGE IN COAL SHIPMENTS.—The Cumberland News of Saturday says: "The American and Maryland coal companies stopped shipping coal by canal on Thursday evening. Numerous reports as to the cause of the suspension were afloat. A News reporter called yesterday on the agent of the American company, but could learn nothing in regard to the difficulty. Elsewhere our reporter was informed that while the American company were willing to allow a trippage of $30, as adjusted by President Gorman, of the canal, a number of their boatmen were unwilling to pay more than $25, and all stopped loading. The agent of the Maryland company stated that the boatmen transporting coal for his company had been deterred from loading by 'advice,' or threats; that the Maryland company were loading what boats they chose to select and had plenty of coal to ship if boatmen could be found to carry it at the terms offered, but that as all boats could not get the dispatch given by the Maryland company, the outsiders would not allow any boats to be loaded by that company. The Maryland company propose to give dispatch on their own terms and if they cannot do that will not ship at all. The agent of the New Central company said that his company was still shipping by canal at $1.25, but as soon as the Maryland company succeeded in getting boatmen to carry coal by paying a 'bonus' of $10 per load as he had understood they intended to do, the New Central, for one, would reduce its freights to $1.15 per ton.

"The shipments by canal yesterday were about up to the average of the season, but fears of a general strike are entertained."

There has been no change in the condition of affairs since the date of the above.

AFFAIRS ON THE POTOMAC.—The Baltimore Sun says: "The steamer Express arrived from the Potomac and other landings yesterday morning. She reported the U. S. sloop-of-war Powhatan and monitor Catekill lying at anchor in Piney Point harbor, in the Potomac, on Saturday. Passengers by the Express report that on Wednesday morning a considerable frost was noticed in St. Mary's county, Md., and lighter frosts on subsequent mornings. No damage resulted of consequence, the tobacco growers having replanted seed immediately after the cold spell some time since, not waiting to see what the result would be upon the plants then growing. The later planting was not in condition to be injured, and the opinion is expressed that many more tobacco plants will be secured than needed. The area put into tobacco this year will be greater than for some time." The Gazette of the same city says: "An unknown schooner, said to be bound from Georgetown, D. C., to a Northern port, with a cargo of coal, is reported to have collided with another schooner, also unknown, and bound to Baltimore, on Saturday night last, in the Bay between the Potomac. The vessel is said to have been sunk, and the latter vessel was slightly damaged. The crew were rescued by the other vessel, and will probably reach here this morning. No further particulars could be ascertained last night."

REGISTRATION.—Registration will commence in this city to-morrow and continue three days. The books will be opened at sunrise and remain open until sunset each day. John Marriott is registrar for the First Ward, J. R. Nicklin for the Second, Col. B. W. Naylor for the Third, and B. W. Naylor for the Fourth. The registration places will be No. 34 Prince street in the First Ward; J. L. Smith's house, opposite St. Mary's Academy, North Fairfax street, in the Second; the old Court House in the Third; and Lucas's wood yard, on Duke, between Columbus and Alfred streets, in the Fourth. The following letter is published for the information of all parties interested:

John Marriott, esq., Registrar First Ward:

Sir: Upon the point you desire my opinion I have to say no change was made by the last Legislature in the registration law. The 4th section of chapter 7, code 1873, has not been amended, and all persons are entitled to register under it. Requirements for registration as to residence, are twelve months in State and three months (less ten days) in county, city or town, as the case may be.

Please so inform the Registrars of the other wards.

Yours, very truly,

JOHN M. JOHNSON,

Commonwealth's Atty.

PUBLIC ACCOMMODATION.—The travelling public, but particularly the Alexandrians who attend the places of public amusement in Washington, and who, frequently have to return home at night half-starved, because they fear to stop on Pennsylvania Avenue, lest they be left by the last train, will be gratified by the information contained in the following extract from the Washington Republican of this morning. Mr. DeShields was formerly clerk at the Mansion House in this city, has many friends here, and in all this section of the State, and ladies and gentlemen can be served with as nice a lunch, and in as nice a manner at his house as in their own homes: "The restaurant at the Baltimore and Potomac depot was opened to the public last Saturday afternoon for the first time, and presented a very handsome and attractive appearance. The lessees and proprietors have endeavored to create an establishment that will win public favor, and the indications are that they will succeed. Mr. Del. DeShields, senior partner, can profit by his extensive hotel experience at the Imperial and Willard's hotels, and has a host of friends that wish him prosperity in the new undertaking. The bill of fare is complete and tempting, and customers will be supplied and attended to by polite waiters."

THE ACCOMMODATION TRAIN.—This is a misnomer so far as Warrenton, the best paying station, save one, on a long line of the W. C. V. M. & G. S. R. R. is concerned. The semi-daily trains to the Junction, connecting with the regular South and North bound mail trains, have been discontinued, and the cars under the new schedule now leave Warrenton at 6 a. m., reach Alexandria at 8:40 and Washington at 9:30 a. m. Returning at 4 p. m. they arrive at Alexandria at 4:40 and Warrenton at 7:30 p. m. This subject passengers and mails for this place by the regular train to a detention of from two to eight hours at the Junction, where no shelter is found. There being no mail agent on the route it takes from four to five days to get a return to local correspondence. This places the town at the inconvenience of a village a day's journey from rail communication. We are persuaded the president of the road has no disposition to continue an arrangement so injurious to us, and hope he will find rolling stock to run the accommodation from Gordonsville and give directions to the employees on the branch road to connect with it. For once our people are a unit in condemnation of the accommodation, and have joined in a petition requesting Mr. Barbour to reconsider.—Warrenton Index.

DESTRUCTION OF ILLICIT DISTILLERIES.—A special force of twenty-five mounted men, with several deputy marshals and collectors and a U. S. commissioner, under command of Maj. Jacob Wagner, from Arlington, in this county, made an extensive raid on illicit distillers in the mountains on the Tennessee and West Virginia border last week. The principal localities visited were Newman's Ridge and Blackwater Valley, lying just south of Powell's mountain and 14 miles north of Rogersville, Tennessee. The inhabitants there, known by the local name of "Malnigies," are a mixture of whites, blacks and Indians, were "bush-whackers" for plunder during the war, and are now engaged in illicit distilling and other lawless pursuits. It was supposed they would fight, as on several former occasions revenue officers were driven off by them. The force was armed with Springfield breech-loaders, and made a clean sweep, completely destroying sixteen distilleries, with contents, large quantities of mash, beer, low wines and whiskey. Eight distillers, armed with carbines, muskets and rifles, were surprised at the distillery of a desperate character, named Mullins, and arrested before they could use their arms. Recent heavy rains rendered it necessary for the force to swim the large streams.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since Saturday afternoon:

Christina Wells and Louisa Henderson, colored women, for disorderly conduct and fighting at Fishtown, were fined and discharged; Frank Taylor, a colored boy, for beating the children of Mr. Bierhardt, near the intersection of Prince and Pitt streets, was discharged with a reprimand; Henry Harris—the colored man who had Jake King, the colored desperado, arrested last week—for threatening and abusing a white man named Ashel Carr, was fined and discharged; and James Campbell, for threatening to brain, not only Geo. Strait, but his family also, all colored, was fined and discharged.

PRIMARY ELECTION.—As will be seen by reference to an advertisement elsewhere in today's Gazette, a primary election will be held by the Conservatives of the city on Monday next, 17th inst, to nominate candidates for the offices of Mayor, City Sergeant and Commissioner of the Revenue—though it is understood the latter office will not be vacant until July 1st, 1886. This mode of nominating candidates was determined upon in order to prevent the cry of ring nominations usually elicited, and it is to be hoped that all who take any interest in the government of the city will go to the polls and secure the election of competent and efficient officers by nominating good men for the several positions.

THE WEATHER.—The weather, yesterday, was warm, bright and charming—that of late spring—and so delightful that everybody who could walk was out enjoying it. The streets were more than usually lively—many of the persons on them having come from Washington—and the grave yards, Fortner's Garden, and other suburban retreats had numerous visitors. April weather, however, came back again to-day with cool showers and sunshine in the morning and a lower temperature in the afternoon.

THE CODE OF 1873 NOT LAW.—Judge Lowe, in quashing the motion against Joseph Padgett, to remove him from the office of Justice of the Peace, this morning virtually decided that the code of 1873 is not the law of Virginia. The session acts of 1869-70 and the code differing, the former must be held the law. This ruling of his honor will postpone any proceedings against Justice Padgett until the meeting of the grand jury, when it is understood, his case will be brought before them.

FESTIVAL.—The ladies of St. Pauls (Episcopal) Church, for the purpose of raising funds to liquidate a debt upon the church, and to further improve the building, have determined to hold a festival in Sarepta Hall on Wednesday and Thursday nights, at which all the delicacies of the season will be served in the most approved style by the fairest of Alexandria's fair daughters.

THE LADY OF THE LAKE.—The steamer Lady of the Lake, is so nearly completed that the Annapolis boat club of Washington, according to the Republican of that city, have decided to give an excursion to Glymont next week, and have chartered that steamer for that purpose.

The best collar ever made is the Elmwood. It fits better and looks better than any other.

Louisiana Affairs.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Mr. Wheeler, of the Congressional Louisiana Committee, in a letter to the Times in relation to the adjustment of the differences in that State, effected under the award of that Committee, says: "There is a class of people who seem to have expected that the adjustment was to inaugurate a political millennium in Louisiana, that henceforth that State was to be free from the friction which attends the workings of political parties elsewhere. This class will probably pronounce the adjustment a failure, for, undoubtedly party warfare will continue to be waged in Louisiana very much as it is in New York and other States of the Union. She will have her dishonest officials and corrupt legislation as other States have, and she will for years to come stagger along under the load of her accumulated financial burdens, and her obligations way at times go to protest. Louisiana from her existence as a State has had an exceptionally stormy record. This condition of things arising from diversity of race and character in the State, with almost unavoidable disturbances growing out of the war and the upheaval of the very foundations of labor and society is not to be changed in a day by any one act however potent or beneficial. Nevertheless I firmly believe that even Louisiana has at last caught inspiration from the new order of things, and that exhausted as she is with tumult and violence, yet with just government and the education of her people, (the last just now her greatest need,) she will, with steady but slow pace, emerge from what seemed to be her utterly helpless condition. There is another class who will regard the adjustment as a failure—those who sought in it simply partisan advantages. Without arrogating anything for the gentlemen who composed the Congressional Committee on Southern Affairs, I think I may safely claim for them that they are not of this class. Regarding all allegations that one provision of the adjustment has already been violated by the Democrats, Wheeler says: "I cannot subscribe to the truth of this allegation. The arbitrators had nothing to do but to pass upon the claims of the members and senators who should sign the agreement. Of course the award could affect no one else. It was merely advisory to the R publican members of the General Assembly. I could not and did not seek directly to interfere with the rights of the members then sitting, and who had certificates of the returning board, but whose seats were claimed by the Democrats. After the Democrats left the House on the 4th of January, and some time during the winter session the Republicans used the House for their own purposes, and held certificates of the returning board, and whose names were on the list of members used by the Republican clerk at the attempted organization in January. No one of these four Democrats, who were seceded at the recent extra session of the Legislature, of which complaint is made, was a party to the articles of the adjustment. No one can be found in Louisiana to assert that at the time these four Democrats were seceded, there was a quorum of the House present. So these four Democrats had never been legally deprived of their seats; but it is replied by those who impute bad faith to the Democrats that the agreement contains this provision: 'The House of Representatives, as to its members as constituted under the award, shall remain without change, except by the resignation or death of the members until the new general election,' and this condition has been violated. The Democrats never questioned the action of the returning board except in the cases referred to the Committee. They are willing with these exceptions to abide by it. My understanding of the above provision is that the House of Representatives was to be as returned by the returning board. After the errors of that board had been corrected, in the cases specified in the agreement by the award of the Committee and its adoption by the House of Representatives, the parties to the agreement having made no stipulation in these cases, cannot be fairly asked to deprive these four members of seats to which they had been declared elected by the Returning Board, and of which 'less than a majority of the members' of the House of Representatives had attempted to deprive them. These four men being legally entitled to their seats and having done nothing to forfeit their reinstatement was an act of simple justice which all, fully understanding the facts, must approve. Mr. Wheeler says touching allegations of bad faith by the Democrats that they did not act covertly. He details the opposition manifested upon the first acceptance of the articles of adjustment, and says: 'On the day preceding the meeting of the late extra session of the Legislature I met at the rooms of General Sheridan prominent Republican officials and Col. Leonard of Shreveport Times, who had been the leading man in the negotiations on the Democrat side. The matter of the four members was fully discussed in General Sheridan's room, and Leonard distinctly informed us that he wished no concealment, and that it was due to us that he should inform us that if the award of the committee should be adopted by the House the Democrats would promptly reseat the four members. This statement is but simple justice to Col. Leonard, and those whom he represented. I can easily perceive how parties at a distance without knowledge of facts of detail should think the Democrats guilty of non observance of the provision which I have cited, but I cannot think them in fairness, obnoxious to the charge, and common justice, which ought to characterize parties as well as individuals, entitles them to this explanation. The Republican party has now put itself in the right in Louisiana. The action of both parties in the future will be watched by the country, and the people will mete out to each, the judgment to which, by its acts, it shall entitle itself, and to that tribunal the matter may safely be confided."

The Tilton-Beecher Suit.

NEW YORK, May 10.—A dense crowd of spectators filled the Brooklyn City Court-room this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Beecher came in early and took their usual places in front of the Plymouth throne. Tuton, Stephen Pearl Andrews and Kate McDonald sat with plaintiff's lawyers. After court opened the first witness recalled by plaintiff's counsel was Geo. A. Bell. During the examination of the witness, and while Gen. Pryor was quoting evidence, he stopped suddenly and said, "Will your honor pardon me a moment; I have an attack of vertigo," and then sank down in his chair. The windows were thrown open and in a few minutes Mr. Pryor had recovered, and rising, said he thought he had made a clear case, and was about to continue but was again overcome and had to sit down. It was suggested that the recess should be taken half an hour before the usual time, but to this Gen. Pryor demurred, and rose again and proceeded with his argument, but closed suddenly by saying that he was unable to continue it. Gen. Pryor left the court-room to seek the fresh and purer atmosphere outside. Mr. Evans replied to the arguments of Gen. Pryor.

The Wreck of the Schiller.

LONDON, May 10.—The sea is too heavy today for boats to approach the wreck of the steamship Schiller. No floating salvage of any importance has yet been recovered. Fishermen report that the Schiller is firmly settled on rock, and will not fall off into deep water. Although it is difficult to approach the wreck now, there will be many days in the summer when salvage may be effected. There was a life belt in every one of the Schiller's berths when the disaster occurred, and the Captain issued orders that one should be fastened to every woman, which was done, but the women were drowned by the heavy sea.

LONDON, May 10.—Boats cruising in the vicinity of the wreck of the steamship Schiller continue to pick up bodies of the drowned. When the steamer left St. Mary's Island today nearly fifty had been found. Seven mail bags in addition to those reported recovered have been saved. They contained mostly San Francisco and Auckland newspapers.

Mining Troubles.

READING, PA., May 10.—The Eagle this afternoon publishes the intelligence that all the railroads who went to the Schuylkill coal regions to take the places of the suspended men, returned on Saturday night to remain away, as the union railroaders in the regions have renounced their organization and have asked the Reading Company to put them to work again, which has been done with few exceptions. The returned railroaders report much suffering in the regions on the part of the miners, and say there is a strong probability that the men will go to work in spite of advice to the contrary by the leaders.

The proprietor of the barber's shop on the northwest corner of Prince and Royal streets, who has lately put up a yellow curtain in his window was exceedingly annoyed on Saturday afternoon last by discovering that some unknown mischievous person had pasted the word "small-pox," in large letters, immediately under the window sill, and driven away much of his custom in consequence.

AN IMPORTED NATURAL GUANO.

A Genuine Animal Deposit.

A monopoly of this valuable deposit has been created in favor of this Company by the Crown Patents. The name "GUANAHANI" is a Registered TRADE MARK, the United States Patent Office, and all persons are warned from making use of the same in connection with fertilizers of any kind.

Every cargo will be analyzed before it is offered for sale.

GUANAHANI GUANO COMPANY,
PETERSBURG, VA.

In offering this FERTILIZER to the Agricultural Community a Second Season we do so with the utmost confidence, feeling satisfied that the high opinion we formed and expressed last season, based on its Chemical Constituents, has been most satisfactorily borne out by the test by which all Fertilizers must be judged—that of the Plantation.

Last season, owing to the lateness at which we commenced importing, we were forced to put our Guano on the market at once, but now having continued our importations during the summer and fall, and having large and well ventilated Warehouses in Petersburg and City Point, we are enabled to put our Guano on the market in a condition, as to dryness and freedom from lumps, equal to any manufactured Fertilizer.

We solicit a careful perusal of our Circular, containing the certificates sent us, and which can be had on application at this OFFICE, or from any of our AGENTS. Having nothing to conceal, we make an innovation on established usage, by publishing these letters received unfavorable to our Guano; but careful inquiry in many cases proves that the cause of its failure was not owing to any fault in the Guano, but to those far beyond our control. We have frequently heard the same complaints of its kindred Fertilizer, Peruvian Guano, but the concurrent testimony of well known Farmers and Planters from Maryland to the extreme Western counties of North Carolina, justly us in claiming a place for our Fertilizer superior to many, and second to none.

We confidently expect the continued patronage of the Agricultural Community, and no exertion shall be spared on our part to make
